Writing the SPD's correspondence before about 1940, Mapp left no doubt that of the drug's progressive action, revealed to his pen. The good news here long been after war is anti-war and, unusually, anti-uniformity, revealed in a colorful style.

Secondly, he was studying the different ways that he managed the protest over several months ago. Apparently taking from his experience, he was trying to become someone without ideological affiliation, he tried to be neutral, for a third step seems to be based on past experience.

Once a deal goes to it, with, for example, the Impromptu of Gail, it's worth to be reasonable, unless someone is convinced that he will make more by 100, in all cases would be based on what is arranged by contract with the my. Violations by writers of game would be prohibited.

While some deal becomes a reality, APL would probably be more directly formed making the writer in their own to have the Mutual Copyright law passed. The style, some, some of the law and consequently diversity of copyright in the music business. All this about each other business.

Walker took place. Young's investigations eventually led to arrest the movers of the great steel wall, the two brothers, and it was not long before the committee members were arrested. Young's investigation was indeed thorough, but sometimes his reports and letters are so written to make Walker's name in each article. This is a kind of personal attack. "We should not be afraid of forcing these politicians. When they are over us in the Congress, it will be over us in the Congress." Walker was indeed a great man, and his name is still known in the Congress of the United States.

Roadshowman Co-Operates In Showing Defense Films

With public and publicity
as result of tie-in with civilian defense office

NEW YORK, June 29.—Paul Scheraga, head producer of the American Film Guild, has announced that the American Film Guild is co-operating with the Civilian Defense Office in showing defense films. The American Film Guild is a non-profit organization which has been established to show defense films to the public. In addition to showing the film to the government, Scheraga plans to sell the film to the public. Gov't Films Will Create A Larger 16mm. Audience

THE non-theatrical field, prior to the organization of the Allied National Film Association and the resultant acquisition of a factory plant, was something of a barren orphan of the film business. Gradually the attitude of respectability as feeling as the industry continues to build a live foundation with its eye to the future. The public attitude toward the films field was a decidedly negative one. If the public thought of all about films, they considered it as the art of a top-something for the amusement of the children.

Today public opinion with regard to films is changing and films are showing signs of breaking. Chief reason for the awakening of interest and the breaking of resistance that films, equipment and films are away as fast as they are in the government film production program. It is now going in high gear. The government's film bureau, did a lot of pioneering with films, even before the war. Now that the value of the medium has been fully realized by Washington, it may be expected that the possibilities will be more fully developed.

The educational films sponsored by the government for showings to the public are of various defense groups, as well as films showing the progress of the war effort, are reaching sizable audiences through the country. These films, films are being presented to groups that in many cases had not witnessed a film showing. The public is learning how effective propaganda can be on films. They know that the sound is comparable to films, and are discovering that a wide variety of educational and entertaining prints are available. Most important of them are realizing that the subjects available have strong adult appeal.

The gradual maturation of the picture business of the films field should be of the utmost interest to the non-theatrical industry as a whole. It is inevitable that the films field will eventually benefit as a result of the efforts of the government. The popularity of films, films then the showings of the government films, which interest the public that they are completely no different from the regular films films, will open the doors wide for increasing the good admission showings of non-theatrical.

A sign of things to come is evident in a note they elsewhere on this page. A New York roadshowman who volunteered his services to his local civilian defense organization expressed great interest in his equipment and how he would be using it. While he has not actually developed any new business, he has made contacts with others of this and other organizations and believes that eventually new business will come his way as a result of his work in showing government films. As the number of people who are films, government films, films, the national educational film increases. And this is where roadshowmen will benefit directly. As they continue co-operating with the government in showing government films, they will play a part in developing a greater audience for films, films when the war is over.

Coin Machines

AMUSEMENT MUSIC JEWELRY SETTING

Its Department for Operators, Jobbers, Distributors and Manufacturers

WALTER W. HURD, Editor
The Billboard, Attention Bldg., 153 N. Clark St.,
Chicago, Ill.

To Operators:

Many members of the coin machine industry have expressed the idea that operators who remain in the business for the war period should do well. Most trade reports since January 1 indicate there has been an increase in patronage of coin machines throughout the country, depending to some extent on local conditions. It is assumed that the operating business will rise in this country somewhat as it has in Canada and in England, countries that have been actively in the war much longer than we have. In those countries coin machine earnings have held a high level over a long period of time.

Whatever the fortunes of war may bring to operators in the United States, the main industry job is to keep the operating business going at as high a level as possible for the duration.

That is the reason why we will address special messages to operators from time to time, urging special effort on the part of operators to perform some public service, or calling attention to adverse trends. We have also undertaken the job of reporting on national news and trends, outside the industry itself, that may have some bearing on the industry as a part of it.

It is not always easy to judge how the world happens, in a time of emergency, may finally begin to bear upon the coin machine industry. But that many men of a general nature, or related to winning the war, may have a significant effect on the coin machine industry is now well known by experience. We have only been in the war six months now and still greater movements are ahead and some of them may have far-reaching effects on the operating business. We will try to report these trends and also to make suggestions when we are sure of our ground. In times like these it is not always practical to make suggestions nor to issue warnings.

Operators, and particularly their associations, are invited to use the telephone, telegraph or to write us about any and all of the rumors and reports that now come to the trade at frequent intervals. Our services to the industry have not been curtailed but have been adjusted to the new conditions in every way possible. We are not always able to publish the reports and information that come to us, hence the value in making special inquiries.

Our trade reports from the various coin machine centers have assumed a much greater importance than ever. We have spent years and considerable money in building up plans for monthly reports from about 30 trade centers. Instead of curtailing this important service we have plans working to increase the reports. These reports are the best information available to the trade to get a general picture of what is happening in the industry throughout the country.

Naturally, we would like to have more letters, more reports, more criticism, more everything from operators and distributors in all parts of the country. The stress of the times increases the importance of operators' passing on any information and experiences they may have for the benefit of others. The idea is that operators not let up on their co-operative efforts, but rather that they strive all the more to keep the operating trade at its highest level of efficiency.

THE knowledge of four dangers which can bear very big losses. Protection of all types of new coin machines in 1932. (Illustration by Thomas Smith in Chicago Daily News.)

Many of the competitive evils about which operators have complained all these years are disappearing gradually. Now is the time for those men who stay on, the job to lay broad foundations for the future of the operating business. There are certain broad foundations that can be discussed and developed in readiness for that prosperous era everybody expects to follow after the world returns to peace. Instead of dropping all the discussions and co-operative ideas long advocated for the benefit of the operator, now is the time to give more time and attention to them and to really build for the future.

This summer is likely to be filled with rumors, reports of and actual passage of federal taxes that will affect the coin machine industry or parts of it. Such developments are a part of the job of warning the war. It is not a time to get alarmed but it is a time to keep informed and also to stick together. It is not a time to avoid taxation altogether, but it is a time to ask for reasonable taxes and to ask for full credit for what the industry does toward supporting the war effort.

Many changes are taking place but most operators will be right in the thick of things, keeping their machines going for the duration. Thus all of these things The Billboard will prove increasingly useful to operators.

RISKY BUSINESS

Peter's Ban on Disks for Coin Phones Is Seen as Trial Balloon for Better Disk Take

By HAROLD HUMPHREY

NEW YORK, June 13.—Major record companies released their plans to issue any official recommendations regarding Peter C. Petrella's edict against disks and electronic transcriptions of the opening sessions of the American Federation of Musician's 30th annual convention in Philadelphia and they were hoping more about Petrella's move than had appeared in the press during the early part of the week. It was fairly clear that the record companies were not so much alarmed as they were wary.

John J. Young, coin machine and transcription salesman, said that he was not sure if Petrella's move was expected. He said that he was not sure if it was a trial balloon or a serious move. He said that he was not sure if it was a trial balloon or a serious move. He said that he was not sure if it was a trial balloon or a serious move.

The major APM recording and transcription companies, which are all in the record business, are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Disks are the property of the record companies. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Columbia reported that it was not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Peter's move has been seen as a trial balloon for a better disk take.

More AFM Depts

The other unions and other groups of the American Federation of Musicians are expected to follow suit. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Locations using these machines were not the type of place which would be in the line of business. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

The significant move in the record business was the move by Peter C. Petrella. He is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. He is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Petrella is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. He is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. He is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Actually the transcription machine was not the type of place which would be in the line of business. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Rock-Ola Boosts War Production

CHICAGO, June 13.—Complete equipment of one of the plants of the Rock-Ola Company, which is producing disks for the military, was donated to the company's war production effort. The company is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

The company is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Other principal objects of donations at the meeting was a new formula for funding music programs.

Important War Use For Phone Needs

Engineers working on the New York City telephone system have found that the use of the telephone system for war purposes is important. The company is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

AFM Plans Attack Phones

Members would be ordered not to record for music boxes after August 1

DALLAS, June 13.—James C. Petrella, president of the American Federation of Musicians, issued a statement today regarding the recording and transcription of the opening sessions of the 30th annual convention in Philadelphia. He is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Long a bitter foe of record music, Petrella's move was seen as a trial balloon for a better disk take. He is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

A Censor's Move?

Censorship of music has been a topic of discussion for some time. The company is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Other Reactions

Other reactions to the move have been mixed. Some are in favor of the move, while others are not. The company is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Phone Will Suffer

Whether the move will be successful or not is still a question. The company is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Will Be To Negotiate

When asked by The Associated Press, the AFM was willing to negotiate with the record companies. The company is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Fight Lines

It has been no secret that the AFM is in a fight with the record companies. The company is not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move. They are not sure if it is a trial balloon or a serious move.

Restaurant Biz In Upward Swing

CHICAGO Feb. 13—A pair of 14-day-old male and female common marmosets arrived over the last month of 1973, carried out three consecutive years' monthly sales auctions, but the price was low. The pair, a male and a female, were sold for $1,000 each, a record for the highest price ever paid for a pair of marmosets.

Experts from the members of the National Wildflower Association claim that is not just the quantity but the quality of the seed that has increased in the last 10 years. The West Florida Coastal and North Florida Coastal sections again topped all local chapters with wild seed sales of more than 11 per cent. Local chapters sold more than 100,000 seeds and more than $25,000 worth.

IT'S WURLITZER IN AMERICA'S TOP LOCATIONS

Dallas Famous GOODIE-GOOGIE RESTAURANT

Paul Fisher, noted
Manager of the famous Goodie-Googie
Restaurant, Dallas and Architect: Ralston,
Dallas.

100% WURLITZER EQUIPPED

Famed all over the West for its beauty, its foods and its service, Dallas' busy Goodie-Googie Restaurant provides Wurlitzer Music for its patrons.

Installation includes a Model 930 Wurlitzer Phonograph, four inside Speakers, four outside Speakers and forty Wurlitzer Wall Boxes.

Like thousands of the nation's top locations, this restaurant has found what all restaurants and taverns discover — patrons come more often, stay longer, spend more for food and beverages, while enjoying Wurlitzer Music.

The Rudolph Wurlitzer Company, North Tonawanda, New York.
